Subject: RE: Abstract and Website Info Ames Warehouse

I have access to the epaosc.net, but I can't get access to the Ames Warehouse fire. It does not even show up on the list for WV. I'll try again.

Subject: Abstract and Website Info

Joan,

I've attached the narrative we worked on together for the website abstract. Please remember to note that the data associated with ASPECT imagery, AreaRae monitoring, and VOC sampling with summa canisters is planning to be presented at a later date.

The link to the website is response.epa.gov/AmesWarehouseFire

Please remind HQ folks that they will need to be logged into response.epa.gov to access this site since it is set to private. They can email ERT\_Support@epa.gov or call 1-800-999-6990 to get an account set up. ERT Support is staffed 24-hrs a day, but keep in mind, they are currently probably busy with hurricane response stuff so they may not answer immediately.

Lora,

Please note that the section you drafted for us at the end of the abstract has changed a bit. Let us know if you have any issues with the changes that were made.

Thank you,
